EDUCATION

NEWS SEGMENT..... "More power to School principles" That's the word from Governor Jim Gibbons; he says it's time to let principles decide what's taught in their own schools and how teachers are paid. Meantime here in Clark County a similar pilot program is already underway, it's called "Empowerment Schools" Produced by Jen Egurrola Broadcast date 1/23/07 Weekend Show (:20 Seconds)

NEWS SEGMENT....The boards of regents say the number of Nevada's college students taking remedial courses in math and English is down 4 % from last year but the actual number of students who need the courses is still up, according to the State's system of higher education. The board of regents stopped funding remedial courses on the University level last year, and many of the required classes at CCSN are full. Over 27 hundred of the state's high school grads in 2006 needed remedial English and math. Produced by Brian Anslinger, Broadcast date 1/25/07 6Pm show (:30 Seconds)

NEWS SEGMENT....State education officials are asking for 1.7 billion dollars to fund higher education. Board of regents chairman Bret Whipple says the funds are needed because there's less money coming in because of sagging enrolment numbers, law makers need to approve the funds before any money could be released. Produced by Ted Marshall Broadcast date 1/30/07 6am show (:15 seconds)

NEWS SEGMENT.....Today kicks off the 30th year of Nevada reading week in Clark County schools. This morning our very own Christina Brown stopped by to read to students at Richard Priest Elementary School, through the week a number of us at Action News will join hundreds of volunteers from around the community to read to thousands of students. This years theme is "A Reader for all seasons" If you would like to devote some time to Nevada reading week, it's not too late. Produced by Brandice Baily, Broadcast date 2/26/07 4Pm show (:35 Seconds)

NEWS SEGMENT.... An elementary school in California is doing away with homework; the principle at Oak Knoll Middle School says studies show homework has little or no effect on kids until they reach middle school age. Critics say that may be the case but when those kids do reach middle school they wont be prepared for the work-load, even so most teachers and parents say they support this new no homework policy. Produced by Ted Marshall, Broadcast date 2/27/07 6am show (:20 Seconds)

NEWS SEGMENT..... In education news, for the third year in a row the drop out rate in Clark County Schools is down, and school officials credit additional tutoring and outreach programs, but they say one of the biggest factors is more students are able to pass the state proficiency exam. So parents listen up if your child is in high school and you want them to graduate they need to pass this exam, the good news is students can take the test up to 6 times starting at the tenth grade and the school district has several ways for them to get extra tutoring if they need it and hopefully if we can get them to pass as a sophomores then we have two more years for them to concentrate on other subject areas so that they can be ready for post grad work, whether it be college or an occupational career. Produced by Brian Anslinger, Broadcast date 2/27/07 6 Pm show (:50 Seconds)

NEWS SEGMENT..... Action News would like to thank you for helping us help our Valley's teachers and students! Because of your generosity we collected nearly 5 thousand items to go to the public education foundation during our "Stuff the Bus" campaign; all of the items will help Clark County teachers stock their classrooms for the rest of the school year, if you're a Clark County teacher and need supplies just log on to our web site. Produced by Brian Anslinger, Broadcast date 3/29 6 Pm show (:30 seconds)

NEWS SEGMENT.....A New study on technology in schools gives Nevada a "D" the study looks at computers in the class room and access to high speed internet out of 50 states, Nevada ranked the bottom. Produced by Amber Walker, Broadcast date 3/30/07 4 Pm show (:15 seconds)

NEWS SEGMENT.....UNLV'S Boyd Law School has made it back to the top 100 Law Schools in the US, that's according to a report in this morning Review Journal. The new ranking was released in the US news and world report, the schools Dean says he's glad the school is receiving national attention but he doesn't hold the weekly magazine's ratings in high regard, he says the school continues to be the same quality school it's always been. Produced by Jen Egurrola Broadcast date 3/31/07 8am show (:25 seconds)

HEALTH AND WELFARE/ENVIRONMENT

NEWS SEGMENT.....An estimated 30 million Americans suffer from Sinus Infections, in today's health minute Judy Forting tells us more about sinusitis, a cold can make you feel lousy but what if the symptoms last for weeks or even months? Sinusitis is the most common chronic illness in the US, acute sinusitis is even more common and that can be from a viral infection or from a bacterial infection. Symptoms include: headache, congestion, sore throat, fever and fatigue.

Dr. Delgado says most cases of acute sinusitis are gone within four weeks and will often improve without treatment. Those that don't require antibiotics and decongestants, chronic sinusitis may be diagnosed if the condition doesn't improve. Surgery is usually indicated for patients who have had chronic sinusitis that doesn't respond to medical therapy, so usually a minimum of a month on antibiotics in addition to decongestants and or oral steroids. It's not just colds that increase susceptibility to sinusitis so do allergies, nasal polyps and a deviated septum or nasal cavity. Produced by Adrienne Prather, Broadcast date 1/30/07 11 Pm show (1 min. 20 seconds)

NEWS SEGMENT....The southern Nevada health district and Green Valley High School officials are warning parents, their children need to be tested for tuberculosis. The Health District confirmed one of the school's students tested positive for T-B and now officials want to test other students who may have been exposed. T-B is a common and deadly infectious disease which commonly affects the lungs. Produced by Nallely Campos Broadcast date 1/31/07 Midday show (:30 Seconds)

NEWS SEGMENT.... If you take vitamins to get going in the morning, you'll want to hear this next story. According to the Journal of the American Medical Association, popular anti-oxidants pills such as vitamins A, C and E and Beta Carotene, don't appear to have any health benefits. People have been taking the supplements for years thinking anti0 oxidants are a quick and easy way to improve health, doctors say the bottom line is people need to eat a varied diet, balanced with exercise. Produced by Ted Marshall Broadcast date 2/28/07 6 am show (:25 seconds)

NEWS SEGMENT.....Is there a link between ice cream and pregnancy? Researches at the Harvard school of public health found dairy products high in fat like ice cream and whole milk can actually help women become pregnant. On the flip side low fat dairy caused women to ovulate less. It also increased their risk of infertility more then 85 percent; the researchers say once you become pregnant, you should switch back to low-fat dairy foods and limit the amount of saturated fat you consume. Produced by Ted Marshall, Broadcast date 2/28/07 6 am show, (:25 seconds)

NEWS SEGMENT.....A new study says weight loss surgery can lead to a neurological problem associated with severe alcoholism. Researchers say the syndrome can develop when the patient doesn't get enough B-1. Symptoms include memory loss confusion and a loss of balance, but the good news is the study says the condition is easily treated with vitamin B1 and researchers say all doctors should prescribe B1 supplements for their patients after any weight loss surgery. Produced by Brandice Bailey, Broadcast date 3/14/07 4 Pm show (:20 seconds)

NEWS SEGMENT...You're consuming more calories then you should be. A report released later today by Yale University found most soda drinkers don't compensate for drinking the sugary stuff with the rest of their diet. If your going to drink soda make sure you subtract the calories elsewhere in your diet. Produced by Adrienne Prather, broadcast date 3/26/07 5am (:20 seconds)

NEWS SEGMENT..... Are you a woman who craves red meat while pregnant? Beware a new study found women who eat a lot of beef while pregnant can give birth to baby boys who will have low sperm count later on in life. Researchers at the University of Rochester

Medical Center say pesticides and hormones in the cattle may be to blame. Produced by Adrienne Prather, Broadcast date 3/28/07 5 am show (:20 seconds)

PUBLIC SAFETY

NEWS SEGMENT..... A move is underway to crack down on convicted sex offenders living near schools. State Senator Dina Titus wants to keep offenders at least a half mile from schools, parks and daycare centers. She's introducing a bill when law makers meet next month to do just that. Produced by Adrienne Prather, Broadcast date 1/30/2007 5 am Show (:15 seconds)

NEWS SEGMENT.....An important recall from our contact 13 Team this morning, more than 150 thousand "Claudia Jublot" children's rings are off the shelves at Big Lots across the nation. The consumer product safety commission says it contains high amounts of lead. Produced by Adrienne Prather Broadcast date 2/26/07 5 am show (:15 seconds)

NEWS SEGMENT..... Slow down or else! That's the message to motorist. Eighteen statewide law enforcement agencies along with safe community's partnership are kicking off a campaign aimed at targeting and catching speeders around the valley. With 2006 being the worst year on record for traffic fatalities in Nevada, this campaign arrives not a moment too soon. Speeding has steadily risen over the years as a major cause of fatal crashes. Only impaired driving and not buckling up kills more people on Nevada roadways. Speed is believed to be the direct cause of a fatal accident only last night at the intersection of Tropicana near Durango, when a 1995 Honda veered off the road and rolled, killing the driver at the scene. Expect to see a saturation of Police patrols looking for speeding drivers throughout the month along with new television spots and bus shelter posters reminding drivers to slow down. We hope willingly issue a ticket, organizers want to encourage drivers to pace them selves and realize that the Las Vegas community has a stake in reducing fatal accidents. Produced by Adrienne Carr Broadcast date 2/26/07 4PM show, (1 : 20 seconds)

NEWS SEGMENT.....How many times have you petal to the metal, just to make it through the intersection? Beware! Nevada Legislators are considering a bill that would put cameras at stoplight intersections monitoring those who run red lights. Fines would be similar to parking tickets but would not add points to your record. Produced by Adrienne Prather, Broadcast date 2/28/07 6 am show (:20 seconds)

NEWS SEGMENT.....Jeff Burton's dog Nikky died after eating tainted pet food, more the 60 million cans and packages of the products which is sold under dozens of brands at major stores cost to coast, have been pulled from shelves following the deaths of at least ten animals, hundreds of other dogs and cats have been stricken with kidney problems including 10year old daisy, all of a sudden she start to loose control of her bladder, and then she started to vomit. Though the source of the problem remains a mystery Menu foods (the products manufactured) is investigating whether a new wheat substance it recently started using may be the culprit. Produced by Brandice Bailey Broadcast date 3/19/07 4 Pm show (1:30seconds)

NEWS SEGMENT.....Jaywalkers beware! Police are cracking down on jay walking. And no one is walking away without a ticket, not even tourist. It's happening near Harmon and Paradise near the Hard Rock Hotel, if your busted expect to fork over 190.00 dollars. Produced by Eric Freitag Broadcasted 3/23/07 cut in (:20 seconds)

WAITING ON THE WORLD TO CHANGE

"20/20" spends time in Camden, New Jersey to report first-hand on the hopes, dreams and terrible hardships children face living in one of the poorest cities in America. Diane Sawyer examines poverty as experienced by children in America.

Friday, February 2, 2007

SWEET REVENGE

How consumed are people by the desire to get even? From crimes of passion to big business, "20/20" looks at revenge and the lines people will cross between fantasizing about it and actually taking it.

Friday, February 9, 2007 (2 Hrs)

CAUGHT ON TAPE

Video cameras, surveillance cameras and cell phone cameras are everywhere these days, capturing outrageous crimes, embarrassing celebrity moments and political gaffes. "20/20" explores how the "caught on tape" phenomenon has changed the way we see the world and the way we live.

PROMISES, PROMISES

From losing weight to staying young and even getting enough sleep, consumers hear a multitude of promises. But what's really behind the hype? "20/20" reports on why something "too good to be true" might be just that.

SCARED STIFFED

There's a lot to be scared about. The media warn us about terrorism, bird flu, vicious crime, cancer, global warming and much more. But are all worries created equal? John Stossel expands on his very first ABC TV special, "Are We Scaring You to Death?," by looking at how we handle risks that face us today.

Friday, March 2, 2007

TRAGEDY IN PARADISE

It was tragedy in paradise when the Kaloko Reservoir dam burst last March on the island of Kauai, Hawaii, and killing seven people in the valley below. Nearly a year later, many residents question if it really was a natural disaster or if man had a hand in the tragedy. Why did a century old earthen dam that had held up during bigger rainfalls suddenly burst? ABC News Correspondent Jim Avila reports.

MOTHER GETS RE-TRIAL

After "20/20" aired an exclusive prison interview in 2002 with Rea Harper - who continued to declare her innocence - an unlikely chain of events occurred, ending in a re-trial. Crime writer Diane Fanning was finishing a book on the brutal crimes of Tommy Lynn Sells, a serial killer on Texas' death row with a history of committing murders similar to what happened to Rea Harper's son. After watching the "20/20" report, she met with Sells and immediately contacted the show to say that he had confessed to the crime.

CHILD ABDUCTION

Statistics say only one to three percent of children missing for more than 72 hours ever return. Now that they are home, what kind of life will they face? Elizabeth Vargas talks with kidnapped victims who beat the odds.

HUGO CHAVEZ

In an exclusive interview, Barbara Walters sits down with controversial Venezuelan President Hugo Chavez. This is the first time he has been interviewed by an American television journalist since he was in the U.S. last fall for the United Nations and called President Bush "the devil," and since his re-election in December.

DRIVING YOU CRAZY

Whether it's kids misbehaving in a restaurant, overpriced sneakers, televangelists not revealing how they spend donations or even couples having children out of wedlock, John Stossel looks at seven completely different instances in which people have put their foot down and are taking matters into their own hands to change things that drive them crazy.

THE GIULIANI'S

Barbara Walters interviews Judith Giuliani, wife of presidential candidate and former New York City Mayor Rudy Giuliani. In her first in-depth television interview since becoming Mrs. Giuliani she responds to numerous questions. Former Mayor Giuliani also joins in the far-reaching interview and addresses these and other topics.
